

Mo' Better Food Farmers Market

Application for the Mo' Better Food Farmers' Market

The Mo' Better Food Farmers Market has a mission of reconnecting healthy food in low income communities grown by African American farmers and other family farmers. Along with healthy food, the market seeks to increase commerce and awareness for community development. We are currently seeking Arts and Crafts, hand made soaps, made by local neighbors to complement our farmers to create a healthy environment for the entire family.
